

Huckstep & Associates Missouri Liquor License Consulting

Huckstep & Associates CPA firm in Springfield, MO has recently launched a service that brings a one stop shop for assistance with obtaining your Missouri state liquor license. We offer several different levels of service in an effort to meet your budget while also meeting your critical need to have a Missouri liquor license. Huckstep & Associates offers consulting services by a 12 year veteran of Missouri Division of Alcohol and Tobacco Control who knows what it takes to move your application through the process. We clearly understand that you want to avoid both the frustration and the lost revenue that results from having your application returned to you for correction. The staff of CPA's at our firm has spent many years in the business of assisting their clients in the area of accounting and financial matters, and we are pleased to add this service to the firm.

Listed below are examples of some the new services Huckstep & Associates will offer in this area. Many other services relating to your business are available upon request.

- Prepare or review, and submit, all required Division of Alcohol and Tobacco Control documents required by your application
- Obtain the criminal record checks that are a required attachment to your license application
- Process and submit any required documents when you wish to file a change of managing officer
- Assistance with preparation of your Missouri Sales Tax License application
- Consulting regarding choice of entity (Corporation or LLC) so as to obtain the most favorable tax treatment, as well as assistance with all business structure setup requirements
- Perform training on Missouri state liquor laws for employees, law enforcement organizations, cities, counties, & coalition groups.

From making your first application for a state liquor license, to making any changes to your existing license, Huckstep & Associates knows what it takes to get it done right the first time.
